

Basic Duties to be Considered a Human

---

To allow all others to exist or live

To allow others to build a family

To respect the property of others

To respect the freedom of speech of others

To refrain from violence to others

To treat all others as equal

Not to judge others without trial

To treat all as innocent unless proven guilty by trial

To allow others to qualify for acquiring citizenship of your country

To allow others to express their sexual orientation

To participate by voting in the country of citizenship

To allow asylum seekers sanctuary

To respect the freedom of thought of others

To allow others to believe and practice the religion they want

To allow others to peacefully protest

To communicate through a language

Not to force anybody into a marriage